

THE DAILY APPEAL.

ABERDEEN.—The river is getting so low that next week both the Hill and the Ingmar go abroad again.

TRAPERS.—For late papers we thank J. E. Smith and W. C. Powers, of the Simonds, P. J. Woods of the Adelphi, and J. A. Parsons, Esq., Esq.

HORN TON.—The splendid new Billiard Saloon, at the corner of Adams street and Second, opens on the 5th of December.—Monday next.

RAILROAD RECEIPTS.—During the last month the Ohio Railroad brought into the city 1,725 bushels of cotton, and the Mississippi 2,100 bushels. The Charleston Road brought 7,031 bushels; the entire receipts by railway for the week being 11,784 bushels.

It is desire to say that the best quality and freshest supply of Baltimore co. oysters may be had at the new house of Hovey, Cox & Co., corner of Second and Monroe streets, who are wholesale and retail dealers in their line.

BUST BY JACKSON.—The meat beat of Jackson, which was held yesterday for the purpose of paying off debts and to reward him for placing an elegant pedestal in Court Square, remained the city last night. It came about 10 o'clock.

ADMIRAL'S EXPENSES.—We are under almost daily obligation, to this excellent company, for exchange papers in advance of the mail, telegraph in this city, Mr. Borden, is an estimable gentleman, to whom we are indebted for many kindnesses.

RACONNE'S COURT.—About eighteen cases were tried at this court yesterday. Several of the offenders were negroes. A woman on Howard street was found for selling liquor to negroes. The judge, however, was lenient, and the case was referred to the city last night. It came about 10 o'clock.

WE ask the attention of the public to the card of our friends, Messrs. Piccinni & Eschner, Druggists, who are established at No. 4 Walker's Block, on Main street. They are gentlemen in whom the public may safely repose confidence, and hence it is necessary, as far as possible, to be under their protection.

THE WASHINGTON RIFLES.—This gallant corps celebrated the fifth anniversary of their organization, yesterday, by a public drill, review, and wound up the day with a grand dinner.

MEMPHIS NEWS.—The Memphis American, was voted to the proprietors of the Commercial, Womach and Gaynes houses, and also to the city press, and the citizens in general for kind favors and attentions.

GENERAL NEWS.

The steam market was firm. The sale of three days amounted to $20,000 worth of cotton, and $10,000 of tobacco.

GENERAL NEWS.

The missing steamer, Empress, has not yet been heard from.

THE LATE NEWS.

The latest news from India shows that the British had some success in several minor engagements.

STILL LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER NORTE BRAZIL.

NEW YORK, November 28.——The steamer Norte Brazil, with the crew and passengers of the Empress, who had been taken to the Mississippi, where they took a down stream boat, were left three days ago, but it could not be discovered for what place. This woman's husband had always behaved kindly to her, the one she has run off with is an idle vagabond. He is twenty-five years of age, but bears a boyish look for his years, has light hair, red complexion, and good eyes, and dark brown hair; he is a prime youth, but has sometimes worked at other business—it is to be hoped he will be caught and kicked as he merits and afterwards made scapegoat in several minor engagements.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

This convention finished their business yesterday and adjourned. The business done, yesterday, was adopting a permanent committee and agreeing to a plan of operations. Three thousand dollars were raised for the purpose of this convention.

GENERAL NEWS.

The missing steamer, Empress, has not yet been heard from.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Empress had been reported to have been captured by pirates, and was reported to have been sold to the Empress for $10,000.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Empress was captured by pirates.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Empress was captured by